How to elope in Arizona

- Obtain marriage license in any Arizona County from the Clerk of the Superior Court.
- Secure an officiant for the ceremony. Officiants can be Superior Court Judges, Justice of the Peace, Ordained Ministers or other ordained individual.
- Secure a location for your ceremony. It can be held anywhere in the State. It doesn't have to be in the County where the license was obtained. Make sure your officiant can get to the location.
- Secure two witnesses for your ceremony.
- Say your vows in front of the officiant and your two witnesses.
- Sign the marriage certificate. The officiant will send it in for you.
- Congratulations! You are married.
